

LIDL NORTHERN IRELAND LIMITED – SPORT FOR GOOD SECONDARY SCHOOLS PROGRAMME 2025-26 COMPETITION ENTRY TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. This nominations campaign (Campaign) is promoted by Lidl Northern Ireland Limited (hereinafter 'Lidl') whose registered office is at Dundrod Road, Nutts Corner, County Antrim, BT29 4SR.

By entering into this Campaign, entrants accept these Terms and Conditions. 2. The Campaign will run from Monday, the 18th of August 2025 until 11:59pm Sunday, the 14th of September 2025.

Lidl reserves the right to extend the deadline of the Campaign at its sole discretion, where deemed necessary to ensure adequate participation and receipt of applications. Any such extension will be communicated via the Lidl website or other official Lidl communication channels.

3. This campaign is open to all secondary schools in Northern Ireland.

4. The nomination process can be completed by all residents of Northern Ireland.

5. Members of the Public (Nominators) may nominate the school (Nominee) which they wish to benefit from the prize by filling in an online nomination form available on the Sport for Good page on the Lidl website (<https://www.lidl-ni.co.uk/lidl-community-works>).

6. There is no limit on the number of entries that a single Nominator can enter.

7. Any nomination forms which are incomplete, without all the required information, illegible, incomprehensible, made or received after the deadline for receiving entries has passed or which are not received by Lidl or are not otherwise in accordance with the terms and conditions are invalid and will not be included.

8. All valid nominations will be counted and used for determining which schools will be selected to a shortlist for the prize..

9. The successful Nominees will be selected by a judging panel (the Panel) which will be comprised of employees from Lidl and an independent third party from Youth Sport Trust.

10. Final decision on the winning schools is made at the entire discretion of the Panel.

11. The Panel's decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into regarding either the selection process or the outcome of the Campaign.

12. The prize for the winning school is a mental health athlete mentorship programme delivered by Youth Sport Trust and a £1,000 voucher for our tendered supplier Podium 4 Sport which can be used to purchase sports equipment of its choice. There are 25 programmes and vouchers to be won. Lidl reserves the right to vary the quantity and type of prize provided.

13. By nominating a Nominee, the Nominator agrees to the processing of the data outlined herein provided by the Nominator in relation to themselves on the nomination form for the purpose of obtaining further information relating to the nomination as may be required by Lidl. By participating in the Campaign the Nominator agrees to the following data such as their full name, email address, phone number, your affiliation to the school, the school name, school address, school type, why you are nominating the school, a school contact name, contact role and contact email (if known) being stored and processed by Lidl and any associated companies for the purpose of the Campaign.

14. By accepting the prize, and in consideration of same, the winning school agrees to participate in any promotional material that Lidl may require surrounding the awarding of the prize or this competition and will ensure that its student's data may be processed by Lidl for that purpose. In this regard, the winning Nominees agree to obtain written consent from Parents and/or Legal Guardians in respect of any of their students who do not have the capacity to give a valid consent (i.e. students under the age of 16) that are to appear or feature in any promotional material as mentioned above.

15. Any personal data communicated to Lidl in any respect will only be processed for the purposes outlined in these terms and conditions. Such personal information will not be used for any other purposes than those specified. Data subjects may apply for access, rectification, erasure, restriction of process, or portability. Any questions in relation to how Lidl uses personal data may be addressed to data.controller@lidl.ie. If Lidl is unable to address such questions, data subjects also have the right to contact the Information Commissioner's Office.

16. Lidl will ensure that all information is kept safe and secure until the conclusion of this competition or until such time as the final prize has been delivered. Any personal data will be deleted thereafter. All information submitted will be held within Northern Ireland or the EU and may only be processed by a third party strictly as Lidl permits.

To learn more about this or how Lidl's website uses personal information, you can read our Privacy Policy

17. Lidl reserves the right to refuse to use the prize to benefit a Nominee / Nominator who breaches any of these terms and conditions or who brings or tends to bring the name of Lidl, its agents, associates or other affiliated organisations into disrepute.

19. Lidl and its associated companies do not accept responsibility for any fault, malfunction, damage, loss or disappointment suffered by the Nominee or the Nominator howsoever arising from participating in the Campaign or from accepting the prize, their chosen sports equipment, or any other item as part of this Campaign whether due to any error, omission or other cause by Lidl or their employees, agents or otherwise.

20. Lidl reserves the right to amend any aspect of the Campaign and these terms and conditions at any time without prior notification to Nominators or Nominees.
